Katy Masonic Lodge #1439 is a 501c10, non-profit organization encouraging members to become better men by striving to be better citizens of our state and country, better members of our churches and our communities - better sons & brothers, better husbands & fathers.

Funds raised help with both the operation of our lodge and with our charitable endeavors in support of children's health, public education and our veterans.

Your support is greatly appreciated and will positively impact the lives of many.
